

Meztli Doles

Meztli was born in el Distrito Federal, Mexico and raised in the Northwest Side of Chicago. Meztli was raised in a faith-based home, her parents are Covenant pastors that have planted churches in the Chicagoland area. Meztli is a graduate from North Park Theological Seminary where she got her Master of Divinity and Master of Business Administration. Meztli has served in a variety of capacities with the CHIC team translating forms, in a focus group, I-team, and as summer staff at Covenant Harbor Bible Camp. Meztli was part of the group that brought Adventures In Leadership (AIL) to the Central Conference at Covenant Point Bible Camp. She also served as an interim youth and children's Pastor in the Pacific Southwest Conference, of the ECC. She has served as an administrative coordinator for Start & Strengthen Churches at Covenant Offices. Meztli and her husband Jordan met while in Seminary. Their interest for one another developed while watching the Cubs win the World Series in 2016; it is safe to say their love for the Chicago Cubs is what united them! During the summer time you can find them in the bleacher section at Wrigley enjoying the Cubs games.
