

Madeline (Madie) Roos

I usually go by Madie. I am originally from Minnesota but have primarily lived in Chicago since I started in the undergrad at North Park in 2012. I recently graduated from NPTS with my master's in theological studies. Prior to that I spent two year as the full-time youth ministry intern at Covenant Harbor in Lake Geneva, WI. Currently, I live in the North Park neighborhood. I love spending time exploring the city on my bike and eating at local restaurants.
